- 1) Approval of April 10, 2024, meeting minutes
Commissioner Ware moved to approve; Commissioner Steele seconded. The motion was carried unanimously.

4. NCMA ACADEMY SERIES – (FOR DISCUSSION ONLY)

Commissioner Nic Steele provided a background information on what the NCMA Academy is and its purpose. He also welcomed and thanked all guest speakers for participating in the roundtable discussion.

Guest speakers introduced themselves and provided information on the programs and services they provide to the community.

The meeting discussed workforce development initiatives, including a grant program for Hispanic and Latinx students, wraparound services, career exploration, and internship opportunities, with a focus on computer technology and healthcare sectors, as well as the need to scale successful programs and invest in talent development while addressing the lack of soft skills in the current workforce through secured funding from local municipalities and government departments.

5. PUBLIC COMMENT (2nd Period)

Janet Serial pointed out that the PowerPoint presentations were not available on the website. MA Rojas stated that the presentation received from guest speakers will be added to the meeting minutes.

See attachment 1 for the PowerPoint presentation for the Math Map from Janna Bernstein.
